

MEMORANDUM FOR: National Foreign Intelligence Program Managers

SUBJECT: NFIP Appeals

1. Now that the Senate and House Intelligence Committees have completed their markups, we can begin to plan to prepare NFIP appeals. As soon as the classified reports from the select committees are available, I will send you lists of cuts that are eligible for appeals. In determining which of these to give highest priority and how best to present them, we will need to collect views and information from each of you. In particular, I will ask you to provide me the following:

- a. A statement of those items which you wish to appeal;
- b. Justifications for restoring funds for those items;
- c. Adjustments (including reprogramming) which you believe necessary to make in your program if these items are not restored;
- d. Adjustments which you believe necessary to make in your program if cuts in other related programs are not restored; and
- e. Developments since the program review which might alter priorities assigned to these items.

2. I will ask you to respond within a week after the committee reports are available and will want to meet with you shortly thereafter to discuss our appeals policy and the appeals letter that I will send. I believe that by proceeding in this manner we will be able to make a strong, consolidated case to Congress for restoring as much as possible of our NFIP budget.
